(U) Idaho – Six Members of White Supremacist Group Expected in Idaho Court

(U) Coeur D'Alene – Authorities advise six of the 31 members of a white supremacist group who were arrested near a northern Idaho pride event will face charges of conspiracy to riot. The Patriot Front members were arrested in June with riot gear after a report of people loading up into a U-Haul at a hotel parking lot in Coeur D'Alene. According to researchers, Patriot Front is a white supremacist neo-Nazi group whose members perceive Black Americans, Jews, and LGBTQ people as enemies. The arrests come amid a surge of charged rhetoric around LGBTQ issues.

(U) Sudan – Protestors Decry Violence as 30 People Killed in Clashes

(U) Khartoum – Security forces fired tear gas as Sudanese protestors marched against the country's military leadership in the capital Khartoum, holding it responsible for an outbreak of violence in the Blue Nile State. More than 30 people were killed and 100 injured in tribal clashes that started last week between opposing tribes. Authorities advise efforts would be increased to reinforce the security presence in the state and investigate the clashes. There have been sporadic outbreaks of violence in several parts of Sudan including eastern coastal regions and western Darfur, despite a nationwide peace deal signed by rebel groups in 2020.
